The Lee W. Robinson Company
Announces New Hires

Louisville, Ky. – The Lee W. Robinson Company is pleased to announce the following new hires; Shelley Wohlleb as Design Resource Manager, Sondra Cooke as Sales Associate, Elizabeth Campbell as Construction Project Manager, Harriet Treitz as an Interior Designer, Bebe Pollard as an Interior Designer, and Chenault Van Winkle as Executive Assistant.

“We are thrilled to have such quality people working with us as we grow, and assist more clients to achieve their goals of making their homes and living spaces beautiful,” said Lee Robinson on the new positions they are adding to their firm.

Established in 1999, The Lee W. Robinson Company is known as the only firm in Louisville that offers a “one-stop services” for their clients. From drafting and renovation to impeccable interior design, The Lee W. Robinson Co. has the ability to serve their clients from start to finish, or choose the individual services they require. Originally catering to the Louisville Market, Lee Robinson and his staff also works with clients around the country. The Company’s philosophy is founded on the basic premise that the arrangement of quality pieces, through a reflection of their client’s taste, in an architecturally correct process, will always work well together.
